

Piano Tuition Newsletter

THURSDAY 8TH
MARCH 2007

Moved house and settled in nicely!

Following the last newsletter I thought it would be a good idea to write once more to all my students.

The move went very smoothly and we have settled in to the new house nicely. Despite a few early territory issues, Finzi too seems to be enjoying his new home.

A number of students were unable to continue lessons due to the move however a number of new students have started so I now have 22 regular students on my books.

Easter Piano Concert

I have already mentioned the concert to some of you but it is now time to start thinking about what you would like to play in the concert. It is an opportunity for everyone to have a go at performing in front of an audience and for some it might even be their first time.

The venue for the concert this term will be The Upper Room at The Wesleyan Methodist Church, St. John Street, Chester.

The concert will start at 2:15 on Saturday 24th March and you will probably need to turn up at about 2 to get a good seat as judging by the last concert, it will probably be standing room only.

I am not advertising the concert publicly but all performers are welcome to bring their friends, parents, partners along to support them. Entry is free and I will provide drinks downstairs in the café after the concert!
